

CONSERVATION DRAINAGE:

A better way to drain

Wednesday, June 28, 2017

10 AM to 1:00 PM

Owens Barn

3774 Jennings Ave,
Lake City, Iowa 51449

RSVP for lunch to 515.289.8300 or clare.lindahl@cdiowa.org by June 21

walk-ins welcome

Iowa's soil and water conservation districts - serving farmers and natural resources for 75 years .

Agenda

- 10:00AM: Welcome & introduction to conservation drainage
Clare Lindahl, Conservation Districts of Iowa
- 10:30AM Is my farm right for conservation drainage? Keegan Kult, Iowa Soybean Association
- 11:00AM Why I put in conservation drainage. Mark Schleisman, Lake City Farmer
- 11:30AM What funding is available today for conservation drainage? Denis Schulte, Calhoun & Sac County District Conservationist
- 11:45 AM Meet Loulou Dickey, agricultural engineering intern for conservation drainage
- 12:00 PM Lunch & demo on testing your tile water with kits provided
- 12:30PM Hear about the restoration of the Owens Barn

Attendees receive

Free kit that allows you to test your own tile water for nitrogen.

Free lunch from Lidderdale Country Store.

Find out at meeting if conservation drainage would work on your farm.

Information on private companies, commodity group and cost share available to help. Access to assistance after meeting.

Presentation on Owens Barn restoration.